ICETEX

ICETEX, as an Institution of the Colombian State that promotes Higher Education through granting educational credits and international cooperation scholarships to the population with lower economic possibilities and with good academic performance, oversees granting economic aid to foreign citizens within the framework of the Strategy of Reciprocity for foreigners and its program, Beca Colombia.

Reciprocity scholarships offer two types of applications:

• For foreigners who wish to pursue postgraduate studies in specialization, master's, and doctorate degrees in public and private Colombian higher education institutions in accordance with the "2024-2 ACADEMIC OFFER CATALOG", which is published along with the open call.

• For foreigners from non-Spanish speaking countries who wish to carry out postgraduate studies in specialization, master's, and doctorate degrees in public and private Colombian higher education institutions and who need to strengthen the Spanish language to carry out postgraduate studies in Colombia in accordance with the "2024-2 ACADEMIC OFFER CATALOG 2024-2", which is published along with the call.

*Note: The beneficiary must present two letters of acceptance; A letter of acceptance to the Spanish course and a letter of acceptance to a specialization, master's or doctoral program offered in the “ACADEMIC OFFER CATALOG 2024-2”. Once the Spanish course has been successfully completed, the beneficiary must begin the postgraduate program to which he or she was admitted in 2025-1.

1. TO WHOM IS THE PROGRAM AVAILABLE TO?

The reciprocity scholarships are aimed at foreign citizens of any nationality who do not have dual nationality (Colombian), who are not residing in Colombia, who have not been beneficiaries of the same program in previous calls and who have a professional or bachelor's degree.

2. DEFINITIONS:

• Candidates: Foreign citizens who apply to the call for the Colombia Scholarship Program and who complete the application on the platform correctly.
• Selected: Candidates who, after making their online application and being evaluated, are chosen by ICETEX for the granting of scholarships or non-reimbursable financial support within the framework of the Beca Colombia program.

• Not selected: Candidates who, after making their online application and being evaluated, are not chosen as scholarship holders because they do not meet any of the requested requirements or because they do not obtain the quota provided by the academic program of the offer, in the case of the academic programs that offer limited quotas and several foreigners requested the same program.

• Scholars: Foreign citizens who have been selected by ICETEX and who accept the scholarship and its commitments.

3. DURATION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP OR NON-REFUNDABLE FINANCIAL SUPPORT:

The scholarships for postgraduate studies in Colombia will have a maximum duration according to the modality as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>MODALITY</th>
<th>PERIOD OF STUDY COVERED BY THE SCHOLARSHIP</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Perfectioning of Spanish</td>
<td>Up to 6 months</td>
</tr>
<tr>

6. OBSERVATIONS:

• The Academic Offer Catalog 2024-02 is a consolidated list of programs that are offered by Colombian universities or educational institutions that are part of the reciprocity program for foreigners in Colombia. In this catalog you will find the quotas for each program offered. For the cases in which a quota is offered per program, if several foreign candidates who meet the requirements apply to the same program, the quota will be obtained by the candidate with the highest score in the evaluation.
• The selected foreign candidate will not be able to change the Program or the University, and only the definitive admission letter(s) presented within the documentation initially received by ICETEX will be taken. The candidate can apply to up to three postgraduate programs that are in the catalog and in the letter of motivation must establish the priority of each one. The above is done to have more options to obtain a place in the call.

Note: Scholarship holders who take Spanish courses will be excepted.

• It is necessary to clarify that the candidate must incur the admission costs established by the Colombian higher education institutions to which they wish to apply.

• Each candidate must personally apply for admission to postgraduate programs directly with higher education institutions or universities.

• All documents must be attached to the application platform; no physical documents will be received for any reason or outside the deadline of the call.

• Colombian Higher Education Institutions that participate in the framework of the Beca Colombia program are registered in the Colombian Ministry of Education. The validation of titles in the scholar's country of origin is not the responsibility of ICETEX.

9. APPLICATION:

Foreign candidates may submit their application online at the following link:

The applicant must guarantee the legitimacy, validity and veracity of the documentation provided for the award of the scholarship. However, ICETEX reserves the right to verify the veracity of the documents and data contained in the application.

If the manifest falsity or alteration of the documents provided by the candidate is verified, the application will be immediately rejected, without prejudice to its referral to the Attorney General's Office, in accordance with the Law.

The Scholarship Committee, based on the information of the applicants presented, and based on the required application requirements, will proceed to award the scholarships, subject to the availability of resources.

10. SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION CRITERIA:

- Academic excellence (30%)
- Coherence between the academic and professional career and the studies to be carried out (30%)
11. SCHOLARSHIP ACCEPTANCE PROCESS:

a. Scholarship Acceptance:

Foreign candidates who are selected and notified will have a deadline stipulated in the notification email to accept the scholarship. The answer must be sent to the email where you receive the selection notification. Failure to provide a response within this period of time implies the withdrawal of the scholarship without giving rise to subsequent complaints or claims and the quota may be awarded to another candidate.

b. Letter of Commitments:

The selected candidates must send by email the “Letter of Commitments”, which must be read and signed by each fellow. Said letter will stipulate the academic, migratory and legal commitments and obligations that the scholarship recipient must comply with during their study period in order to retain the benefit of the scholarship.

c. Courtesy Visa Letter:

The selected candidates will receive from ICETEX a letter addressed to the Coordinator of the Internal Working Group, Visas, and Immigration of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Colombia, or to the Consul of Colombia in their country of origin, with the pertinent information of the scholarship recipient for obtain your Courtesy Visa. Each fellow must apply for their courtesy visa online on the Ministry's website. For this visa, the fellow must not make any payment and must follow the instructions in the visa application manual sent when notification of selection is received. If the visa application is denied, and the scholarship recipient has been selected to pursue a face-to-face academic program, ICETEX will be obliged to permanently suspend the scholarship awarded.

d. Welcome Logistics Note:

The selected candidates will receive a note with useful information for their stay in Colombia to facilitate the scholars arrival to Colombia.

12. DISBURSEMENTS OR DEPOSITS FOR LIVING EXPENSES:
For the payment of the money corresponding to the assigned items, which will be made quarterly, the scholarship holder must open a savings account in Colombia, in any bank in the city where he is going to study, and for this, he must present the Foreigner ID. Bank accounts cannot be opened with the passport, and the scholarship deposit will not be made until the scholarship recipient has the bank certificate relating to their foreign identity card as an identification document. Once the foreign scholarship recipient has this document, they must submit to the ICETEX International Relations Office, via email, the certification issued by the financial institution stating the account number and the identification number (foreigner's ID).

It is necessary for the scholarship holder to have economic support for at least 3 months of support (approximately 700 USD per month), since the first payment for maintenance, installation, and book expenses will be made when the scholarship holder has met the shipping requirements. Alien identity card, bank account certificate in Colombia, address, and mobile phone in Colombia. This draft will be processed upon receipt of the documents and the scholarship holder will receive resources in a maximum of 6 weeks after this.

The payment of support will depend on the start date of the scholar's academic program, and not on the time spent in Colombia. That is, if the scholarship recipient enters the country one month before the start of the program, the resources will be deposited considering the official start date of the Academic Program, which has to be reflected in the letter of acceptance of the University in which the Scholar will begin his studies.

The support payment for the following months will be made during the month that corresponds to the beginning of each quarter (which is equivalent to every three months). That is, the support payment will be made quarterly in advance, for example, the support for the months of April, May and June will be paid during April and so on.

13. COMMITMENTS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP HOLDER:

To obtain the best results in academic activities and to achieve an enriching experience, and to maintain their well-being and safety, the scholarship recipient must fully comply with the following:

Legal Obligations:

a) Comply with and abide by Colombian laws, including the laws established on sexual crimes.

b) Respect the rules of conduct and social customs.

c) Carry out the courtesy visa and foreigner identity card procedures within the required times, making sure not to let these documents expire, as this would generate fines and penalties. If the scholarship recipient violates the foregoing, he must assume the additional costs of the procedures.

Academic Obligations:
a) Carry out the academic program within the same period for which the scholarship was approved, that is, it is not possible to change programs or universities. Likewise, you must successfully complete the academic program, within the estimated times. You will not be able to defer subjects or academic credits.

b) Devote your time to the completion of the academic program, since you are not allowed to establish employment contracts, under any modality, while you have the status of an ICETEX scholarship holder. The TP1 Visa endorsed by ICETEX does not allow you to work.

c) Maintain a minimum academic average of 4.0 out of 5.0

d) Submit an experience report each quarter for which you will be informed of the dates and methodology in which they must be delivered (it should be noted that, if the reports are not submitted on the stipulated dates, ICETEX will not make the disbursement corresponding to the following trimester until the scholarship recipient sends the documents).

e) Comply fully with the rules of the institution where they study.

f) Permanently update contact and address information with ICETEX.

g) Attend all meetings convened by ICETEX.

h) Submit to ICETEX a copy of the degree diploma and degree certificate.

Special Obligations:

a) The fellow agrees NOT to participate in illicit activities related to money laundering and the financing of terrorism and crimes that are the source of these. Likewise, to communicate to ICETEX or a competent authority all the information that it knows regarding these crimes.

IMPORTANT:

If the scholarship recipient does not meet one or more of the scholarship requirements, it will be suspended as well as their “V” type courtesy visa and they must travel to their country immediately.

14. SUSPENSION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP:

ICETEX may temporarily or permanently suspend the disbursements of the scholarship, when the scholarship recipient incurs in any of the following cases:

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION:

The temporary suspension of the scholarship implies the suspension of disbursements in the following cases:
• Due to illness, mental or physical incapacity, which temporarily prevents the scholarship recipient from continuing their educational activities, duly justified, for a maximum of a six-month academic period.

• For not sending the quarterly experience reports that certify the fulfillment of academic obligations, grades, and attendance, which is signed by the Coordinator or tutor of the Study Program being carried out.

OBSERVATIONS:

Once the event has occurred, the scholarship recipient must inform ICETEX within a period not exceeding that required for the next disbursement, otherwise the scholarship will be permanently suspended. Once the cause for which the execution of the scholarship was temporarily suspended has been overcome, the scholarship recipient must inform ICETEX to continue receiving the support benefit.

DEFINITIVE SUSPENSION:

ICETEX may permanently suspend disbursements or not renew the scholarship, when one of the following cases occurs:

• Due to abandonment of studies as established in the Application Bases/Regulations of the Colombia Scholarship Program.

• Due to the non-granting of the courtesy visa to carry out a face-to-face academic program.

• Due to expulsion from the educational center, taking into account that they did not comply with the regulations of the institution.

• For not accrediting the required academic average corresponding to the immediately preceding academic period.

• By verified presentation of modification or changes in order to provide information that allows you to be a beneficiary of the program.

• For not submitting the academic documents required in the commitment letter within the established times.

• Due to illness, mental or physical incapacity that prevents the scholarship recipient from definitively continuing their academic activities.

• At the express request of the scholarship holder duly justified.

*This suspension will be resolved by the Colombia Scholarship Program Committee.
15. MONITORING AND CONTROL:

The follow-up and control of foreign scholarship holders will be in charge of ICETEX, through the International Relations Office, which will monitor the scholarship holders' experience and will make the transfers or payments of these commitments in a timely manner.
