INTERNATIONAL

PORTFOLIO

Office of International Relations

(ORI)

At ICETEX, we believe in Colombian talent and the power of their dreams. We accompany them in their life projects so that studying can be a real opportunity. We work to create pathways that help shape their future, prioritizing those who demonstrate academic merit and face greater financial challenges.

VICE PRESIDENCY OF FUND MANAGEMENT

At ICETEX, we manage financial resources provided by public, private, nonprofit, and mixed-sector organizations, transforming them into opportunities for access to higher education. Through this model, students receive financial support for living expenses or benefit from loan forgiveness programs.

These funds support populations through a differential focus approach, helping expand educational opportunities and enabling more Colombians to pursue their academic goals and transform their lives through education. We support access, permanence, and graduation of students from our country.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (ORI)

The Office of International Relations connects Colombia with the world through strategic alliances with governments, universities, and different organizations to create educational opportunities.

We promote the internationalization of higher education by providing Colombian students, professionals, and Colombian higher education institutions with global education experiences that transform their academic pathways and strengthen national talent beyond borders.

“COLOMBIA AS AN ACADEMIC DESTINATION”

PROGRAM

ICETEX promotes international conferences and academic missions aimed at positioning Colombia as a high-level academic destination. Through these initiatives, our institution supports, through financial or in-kind contributions and in coordination with national and international partners, spaces that strengthen the internationalization of higher education, fostering knowledge exchange and the global projection of the country.

ERASMUS+ NATIONAL FOCAL POINT FOR COLOMBIA

This initiative promotes the participation of Colombian students and universities in academic mobility and international cooperation initiatives led by the European Union.

Since 2015, Latin America has been a priority region for Erasmus+, and with the support of ICETEX, Colombia continues to expand its presence by bringing these opportunities to remote regions across the country.
